NOTICE

08.08.2024

It's a matter of deep sadness and regret that Ex- Chief Minister of West Bengal late Buddhadeb Bhattacharyya has started his eternal journey today. The Govt. of West Bengal has declared holiday today in memory of his departed soul. Hence, the college will remain closed today except the University Examinations in the college centre will remain continued and the staff and teachers who are assigned duties in the examinations will have to perform their duties as usual. All other staff and teachers may leave the college today. All academic classes will remain suspended today.
