Submission Guidelines:

Topic: "Contribution of Women in Science"

Word Limit: Maximum 120 words.

Deadline for Submission: February 24, 2026.

Submission Process: Abstracts should be submitted to the respective Head of the Department (HoD).

Selection & Poster Presentation:

Each department will review the entries and identify the two best abstracts. The authors of these selected abstracts will then be invited to prepare a hand-made poster based on their work for display during the National Science Day program.

Further technical specifications regarding the poster dimensions and presentation schedule will be shared with the selected students shortly.

All departmental heads are requested to encourage maximum student participation to make this event a success.
